OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 19 December 1963

25X1

1. [REDACTED] JSW) Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, telephoned indicating that at the request of Chairman Mahon he was attempting to establish tentative hearing schedules for January. Mr. Mahon would like the Director to brief the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee on 15 January. Possibly this could be adjusted a little. In prior years this hearing has run into two days. In response to my query, Michaels indicated they would not be hearing from McNamara and Taylor until early February. I advised Mr. Michaels I would check into this and advise.

2. [REDACTED] Miss Long in Representative Silvio Conte's office inquired if we would possibly be interested in employing a [REDACTED] February. She gave me an Immigration file number of [REDACTED] in the Boston office. She will also send me additional papers. I did not encourage the Congressman's office on this one but did agree to look into the matter and will advise.
